

This material was produced under grant number SH-248783-1-6-O-F-37 from the Occupational Safety and Health Administration, U.S. Department of Labor. It does not necessarily reflect the views or policies of the U.S. Department of Labor, nor does mention of trade names, commercial products, or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. Government.

- ... and for discussion ...
1. How can an employer protect workers?
 2. How can an employer give workers information?
 3. Did you have any training at your job? What kind of training?
 4. How can an employer help workers understand if they do not speak the same language?

Vocabulary

- 1. machines
- 2. information
- 3. hazards
- 4. training

Dialogue 3

- Maria: This is bad news. Do you remember what we talked about?
- Your boss needs to give you information about such dangers or hazards.
- John: Not really. He speaks English very fast. I did not have any questions for him. My English is not very good.
- Maria: Your boss has to make sure the machines operate safely.
- He should show you how to work safely. Does he do these things?
- John: I am not sure. There are many machines. I can see I must be careful around my machine because it is very powerful.
- Maria: Yes it is. Is there a problem at your work? Is there danger?

- John: You told me my boss has to give us a safe workplace. Is this really true?
- Maria: You can ask me anything. I hope I have the answer.
- John: Hi, Maria. I'm glad to see you. I have a question.